DINOFLEX Group Limited Partnership warrants to the original Purchaser of rubber flooring tiles the components listed below will at the time of sale conform to the specifications and technical data as set forth in the Manufacturer's technical and promotional materials and will be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use and service as outlined below.

"Original Purchaser" means the first purchaser other than distributors and dealers.

"Product" includes rubber flooring tiles distributed by DINOFLEX Group Limited Partnership, and installation/maintenance manuals, technical data and other advice, if any, provided by DINOFLEX Group Limited Partnership.

The Original Purchaser must have purchased the Product in the United States or Canada.

This warranty is subject to each of the following terms and conditions:

- Repair the covered component using new, remanufactured or approved, repaired parts and/or components, at our sole choice, needed to correct the defect. Replace in proportion to years of actual use less than ten years at our sole choice any covered components determined by DINOFLEX to be nonconforming. Replacement costs shall be allocated between DINOFLEX and Purchaser by prorating those costs.

- For example, if 20 tiles are determined to be nonconforming after two years of use:

  DINOFLEX will supply 8/10s equal to 16 replacement tiles at no cost to the Purchaser.

  Purchaser will be responsible for buying 2/10s equal to 4 replacement tiles.
